Adjudication and Scoring

Adjudication

A four-person panel of dance professionals, with the majority of the panel having classical expertise, will adjudicate the entire competition. The adjudicators are not members of the Executive Board of the Cecchetti Council of America. Every effort has been made to ensure that adjudicators have no or very minimal previous association with the competitors or their studios before the competition. Communication with the adjudicators, either by the competitors, teachers or any other interested parties during the competition is strictly prohibited.

Scoring

The scoring system consists of two elements - artistic and technical - and is evaluated on a 100-point system. Each judge's scores are the average of the technical and artistic marks. The total score is the average of scores given by all judges. In addition to providing a numerical score for each participant's performance, judges may offer personal comments to help guide participants in their training.

Score Sheets

Score sheets will be available on DanceBug following the event.

Costumes and Props

- Costumes are the responsibility of each competitor, with footwear appropriate to the dance.
- Costumes should be age appropriate and tastefully chosen. Classical grooming and attire are expected. Any costume considered inappropriate for family viewing by our judges will be disqualified.

- CCA is not responsible for any lost props.
- No props are allowed that would need to be swept or picked up from the stage after the piece.
- CCA does not provide assistance with any shipping of props before or after competition.
- CCA reminds teachers, parents, and students that backstage space is often limited, and props may not fit in the allotted space. We ask choreographers to respect this circumstance when making their pieces and limit the use of props to the absolute minimum.

*Please note that any choreography, music, or costume considered inappropriate for family viewing by our judges will be disqualified. Performances with thematic elements and "highly charged" issues reflecting a lack of discretion and awareness of the age and nature of a competition audience will be deemed inappropriate by our judges and will be disqualified.
