Adjudication and Scoring

Adjudication

A four-person panel of dance professionals, with the majority of the panel having classical expertise, will adjudicate the entire competition. The adjudicators are not members of the Executive Board of the Cecchetti Council of America. Every effort has been made to ensure that adjudicators have no or very minimal previous association with the competitors or their studios before the competition. Communication with the adjudicators either by the competitors, teachers or any other interested parties during the competition is strictly prohibited.

Scoring

Classical, contemporary, and group categories will be scored separately. If a dancer is performing two classical variations, the overall final score will be an average of the scores given for each variation. This will also be the case if performing two contemporary solos. The scoring system consists of two elements - artistic and technical - and is evaluated on a 100-point system. Each judge's scores are the average of the technical and artistic marks. The total score is the average of scores given by all judges. In addition to providing a numerical score for each participant's performance, judges may offer personal comments to help guide participants in their training. Scoring is adjusted to students' individual technical levels.

Scoring

Scores will be available on DanceBug following the competition.

Costumes and Props

Costumes

- Costumes are the responsibility of each competitor, with footwear appropriate to the dance.
- Costumes should be age appropriate and tastefully chosen. Classical grooming and attire are expected. Any costume considered inappropriate for family viewing by our judges will be disqualified.
- Dancers are not allowed in the auditorium in costume.

Props

- All props must be approved in advance by CCA at the time of registration. To approve the usage of props at the CCA, please email ambermegna@yahoo.com with the subject line, "Props usage request – CCA Competition."

- Please note that all props that participants wish to use are used at the participants' own risk. CCA is not responsible for any injury or incident resulting from a participants' use of props of their choice.
- CCA does not provide storage for any props.
- CCA does not provide assistance with the movement of props either on or off stage.
- CCA is not responsible for any lost props.
- No props are allowed that would need to be swept or picked up from the stage after the piece.
- CCA does not provide assistance with any shipping of props before or after competition.
- CCA reminds teachers, parents, and students that backstage space is often limited, and props may not fit in the allotted space. We ask choreographers to respect this circumstance when making their pieces and limit the use of props to the absolute minimum.

*Please note that any choreography, music, or costume considered inappropriate for family viewing by our judges will be disqualified. Performances with thematic elements and "highly charged" issues reflecting a lack of discretion and awareness of the age and nature of a competition audience will be deemed inappropriate by our judges and will be disqualified.

We advise dancers to warm up safely in a space in the hallway. Please be mindful of other dancers. There is absolutely no talking or horseplay allowed in the backstage area.
